

NAFTA at 20
Workshop on NAFTA Compliance and
Mexico's NAFTA Origin Verification Procedures
Wednesday, May 29, 2013
10:00 AM – 12:30 PM
Location: Servicio de Administración Tributaria (SAT)
Avenida Hidalgo 77, Colonia Guerrero, C.P 06300, Mexico, D.F.
Room: Auditorio Módulo 1

On Wednesday, May 29, 2013, Under Secretary for International Trade, Mr. Francisco Sánchez, will co-host a workshop with the Chief of Mexico's Servicio de Administración Tributaria (SAT), Mr. Aristóteles Núñez, on NAFTA Compliance and Mexico's NAFTA Origin Verification Procedures with the U.S. and Mexican textile and apparel industries.

Agenda

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 10:00-10:30 | Welcome Remarks by Mr. Aristóteles Núñez, Chief of Mexico's SAT, and Mr. Francisco Sánchez, U.S. Under Secretary of Commerce |
| 10:30-11:30 | Agenda <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ NAFTA Chapter 5: Rights, Obligations and Consequences when filling out and signing a NAFTA Certificate of Origin■ Verification Procedures Technical Session including SAT's New Procedures Designed to Facilitate Compliance■ How SAT is resolving current cases? |
| 11:30–noon | Question and Answer Session |

NOTE: In the afternoon, following the workshop, U.S. and Mexican companies will have the opportunity to meet with SAT authorities on a one-on-one basis to discuss their specific cases. Please leave company specific questions for the one-on-one meetings.

If your company is interested in meeting with an SAT representative, please let Richard Stetson at Richard.Stetson@trade.gov and Laurie Mease at Laurie.Mease@trade.gov know by no later than May 21st.

Please bring your passports and arrive early to the forum in order to get through security.